

The Vermont Veterans' Home Persistence Award

Persistence can help you overcome any obstacle.
It enables you to keep going when you feel like giving up.
It teaches you how to become more resilient.
It helps you learn from your mistakes and grow from them.
Persistence gives you the power to create change in your life and the world around you.

The purpose of this award is to recognize a VVH staff member from a non-nursing role for their outstanding persistence in caring for and honoring those we serve.

Persistence is reflected in the Core Values of the Vermont Veterans Home.

I would like to nominate _____ from the _____ department for the 2024 VVH Persistence Award.

Please describe below how this employee demonstrates these core values:

Professionalism

Excellence

Respect

Service

Integrity

Stewardship

Teamwork

Please use the backside for further elaboration and to provide your information:

Optional Information:

Your Name: _____ Phone: _____

Email: _____

I am a: (circle one) Veteran/member Family member Visitor Staff Other

Would you like to be notified if the person you nominated receives this award? Yes / No

